European Association for Music in Schools (EAS)
EAS Mission Statement

- The EAS is a music education network. It interconnects all those involved in music education (teachers, teacher educators, researchers, students, musicians, policy makers) to share knowledge and experience in practice and research, and to advocate for high quality music education that is accessible to all young people.

- The EAS aims to support the music education community in fostering and developing essential competencies to advance practice and research, and to aid cultural awareness. Our work invites music educators to motivate learners to pursue their own interests and goals with confidence, and to facilitate young people's creativity.

European Music School Union (EMU)
The European Music School Union (EMU) is the European umbrella organisation of national music school associations in Europe. Music schools in Europe are institutions specially devoted to musical education and chiefly geared towards the practical aspects of music-making. Although the term music school" is common in nearly all European countries, there are no binding international requirements that a music school has to fulfill. National associations from 27 European countries are currently member of the EMU. Representing roughly more than 6,000 music schools, 150,000 music teachers and 4,000,000 students.
Main Activities

- Represent the interest of music schools, advocate for the benefits of music education and musical practice
- Information exchange on all questions relevant for music schools
- Provide training on pedagogical topics, administration, management, lobbying and further areas relevant to music schools
- Collect and publish statistics on the music schools members of the EMU
- Organise events (European Forum on Music Schools, Youth Music Festival, Meeting of the Boards and others)
- Facilitate exchanges of student delegations, teachers, pupils, orchestras, bands, choirs, etc.
How do we contribute to sustaining music

- Numerous activities of the network contribute to sustaining music: Statistical information, collection and publication of information during the pandemic, providing training on IT-based tools in music pedagogy, discussions revolving around the role of music schools in society, etc.

- One major aspect with regards to sustaining music is the preservation of music as cultural heritage. This regards especially traditional music and folklore, but also western art music.

slow and sustainable

- since more than 200 years, one particular added value of the arts in terms of ensuring sustainable societal development has been to be a counterpoint to the higher, faster and bigger of the business-driven world.
- it’s the social mandate of art and art institutions to counter the universe of values as set by the economy through promoting an alternative set of values.
An educational system that „has come to value productivity over contemplation - or, put a different way, rapidity over slowness“ is not suited to appropriately prepare its graduates to cope with the social challenges of the future.

„How might the arts and humanities, we ask, offer a critical counterpoint to the widely accepted dictum, faster is better?“

5. The EAM’s priorities and how they are followed up by SCHEME

- Ensure that access to and participation in music is open to all, regardless of physical or intellectual ability, gender, age, cultural origin, geographical or economic circumstance
- Guarantee sufficient and sustainable funding for music education, both in schools and in non-formal settings
- Develop and maintain the quality of music education in schools
- Foster high-quality opportunities for participation in music in non-formal settings
- Adapt methods, tools and spaces of musical education to the ongoing digitisation
- Contribute through music education to promote ecological, economic and social sustainability
- Ensure ongoing funding and develop capacity building opportunities for all music sector professionals and non-professionals

Sustaining learning and participation in music

Sustainability in our association

- Collective Singing and Society (well-being, equity, diversity)
- Sustainability of the sector (locally & of international events) -> surveys
- Impact of COVID19 and the war in Ukraine
- Impact of the energy crisis and financial crisis (for some)
- Impact of the climate change (esp. on international work)
- Financial sustainability (of our members & ourselves)
- Environmental sustainability - our possible role

How to deal with conflicts of values? Time constraints?
Thank you very much for your attention!
