VI edition of the Inclusion & Choral Singing Conference “Voice & Resilience”

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS
Deadline: 21st December 2016

Moviment Coral Català is preparing the VI edition of the INCLUSION AND CORAL SINGING CONFERENCE (ICSC) that will take place in Girona (Catalonia-Spain) 25th March 2017. Under the motto Voice & Resilience this new Edition of ICSC will focus on the power of vocal music practices as promoters of resilience for people in risk of social exclusion (with special attention to refugees, exiles, minorities, etc.). Under the motto Voice & Resilience we are looking for projects, best practices, ideas, reflexions, researches, methods, etc. where singing and choral practices have impact in the wellness and improving health and living conditions of immigrants, exiles, refugees and other vulnerable situations.

There are three modalities of participation

- Presentation (15')
- Workshop (45')
- Round Table (45')

Applications

Please send, before the December 21st, to mcc@mcc.cat a pdf document with the following information:

- Complete name / email / country
- Short CV (150 words)
- Title of your proposal
- Abstract (300 words)
- In case of round table indicate the other people you want on the Round Table

Please also send a photograph with your proposal, in high resolution (to be printed on the hand program of the ICSC).

Publication of the program

The program of the conference will be published during January 2017.
